The title of this case is marked changed to show the name, ROBERT GORNEAL KAUFMAN, as reflected on subject's birth certificate.

In July, 1950, Mrs. LILLIAN KAUFMAN, 1660 North Conti Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, mother of the subject, advised that she had not seen her son in about three years, and that he had not been in New Orleans during this period. She advised that he had not written to her or any of his relatives in New Orleans. She said that the only information that she had had from him was a telephone call from New York City last Mother's Day. She stated that she talked to him only a few minutes and gathered from the conversation that he was still employed as a seaman, but stated she had no definite information as to his present address.

[redacted]
[redacted] furnished the following information concerning subject to SAS [redacted] in a signed statement dated April 4, 1955, at New York, New York:

[redacted]

[redacted] on April 4, 1955, identified a photograph of the subject as the individual to whom he referred to in his signed statement.

[redacted] who was in a position to furnish reliable information, advised on November 8 and 9, 1954, that information in the possession of [redacted] as of November, 1954, concerned ROBERT KAUFMAN of the "waterfront."
KAUFMAN was described as "30 years old, Negro, smooth talker."
The information was to the effect that ROBERT KAUFMAN had been working with the Harlem Region of the CP during 1949 and 1950 mainly in election campaigns. He undertook certain responsibilities from the Harlem Region CP working with professional groups and in tenants' work, but proved unstable. The information reflected that about September 1950 it was determined that KAUFMAN was going around with certain youth in Harlem and participating in the drug traffic. When called in by the Harlem CP about this, KAUFMAN admitted this was so and also that he "took the needle" himself. KAUFMAN was told by the Harlem CP that he could no longer be considered a Communist. The information further indicated that KAUFMAN continued to parade as a CP member and attempted to corrupt the morals of Labor Youth League youths. The Labor Youth League has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. KAUFMAN was expelled from the CP for degeneracy in January 1951.

Rebulet 7/13/56.

Inquiry at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, 9876 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, by SA [redacted], on August 10, 1956, revealed that KAUFMAN discontinued his employment there in early May, 1956, and left no forwarding address. He stated at the time of his departure that he planned to go to San Francisco to seek work.

[redacted] KAUFMAN's when he resided at 1810 North Serrano Avenue, Los Angeles, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] on August 10, 1956 that KAUFMAN left that place in May, 1956, saying he was going "back home." She stated that at some time prior to that he had told her where "back home" was, but that at the present time all she recalls is that he claimed his home was somewhere in the East. She stated that she knew of no one in the Los Angeles area with whom KAUFMAN was friendly, or who might have knowledge as to his whereabouts. She also advised that he left no forwarding address when leaving, and had received no mail.

Records of the Traffic Division, Los Angeles Police Department, reveal that KAUFMAN was cited in October, 1955 for traffic violations, but no information as to his possible present whereabouts was contained in the records. These records were searched on August 15, 1956 by SE [redacted]

No record could be found of a forwarding address left by KAUFMAN with the Post Office in Los Angeles.

RE: ROBERT GORNEAL KAUFMAN SECURITY MATTER - C

b7D

It is to be noted that extensive investigation has been necessary in the past to locate KAUFMAN. His mother has furnished information in the past indicating that he does not maintain contact with his relatives. He has been described by an acquaintance as a "drifter," which description is borne out by investigation conducted in the past to locate him.

It is also to be noted that no information concerning his activity in the Communist Party has been reported since the late 1940's except that one BOB KAUFMAN, a former seaman, had been expelled from the Communist Party sometime in 1951. It is also to be noted that much of the information reported on BOB KAUFMAN cannot be positively identified as referring to the subject.

While it is felt that investigation will, in time, elicit information eventually leading to his whereabouts, it does not appear that he would be in a position to furnish information of current interest to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or that, because of his record as a "drifter" and his apparent expulsion from the Communist Party [redacted]

[redacted]
In addition he does not meet the revised criteria for inclusion in the Security Index. It would therefore appear that extensive investigation to locate him for interview would be unwarranted at this time.

Accordingly, interview with him is not being recommended at this time, and this case is being closed.
